Exhibit
"I"

Can you please send me the amended order?

- > Have you heard anything from the affected users?

They have not responded to us within a reasonable amount of time and so we are prepared to cooperate with this request.

It should be noted that only one of the usernames (sop81) you have provided us is that of a WordPress.com user; the remainder are rather of commenters on the site. Because of this, the information available is limited to the email address they have given (which may or may not be valid), and their IP address at the time of the comment in question.

Can you help me please and identify with URLs the specific comments by each user that are in question here? It will greatly speed my response to you as I would assume you already have those comments in mind.

Thank you for your patience.

Thank you for forwarding these documents to us. We have forwarded the order you initially presented to the blog owner(s) as per our policies. We provide our users with an opportunity to respond to such orders independently. If we are informed by the blog owner that they do not wish to challenge the order, or if they do not respond to us within a reasonable amount of time, we will deliver the requested information at that time.

If you have any questions about this policy, please let me know.
